PART I - STATUTE OF THE LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY "PRODEZVOLT"

Registered by the State Registration Chamber under No. 1016600020206 on 29 June 2016. Registrar: Ala Dragomir.

2016

I. GENERAL PRINCIPLES

1.1. This Statute is drawn up in accordance with the Civil Code of the Republic of Moldova No. 1107-XV of 6 June 2002, Law of the Republic of Moldova No. 135-XVI of 14 June 2007 on Limited Liability Companies, and Law of the Republic of Moldova No. 845-XII of 3 January 1992 on Entrepreneurship and Enterprises.

1.2. Founder of the Company: SIDORENCO PAVEL, born 28 April 1976 in Dnepropetrovsk, Ukraine; identity card of the citizen of the Republic of Moldova A 03053995 issued on 21 September 2000; personal identification code 2000003181416; domicile: MD-2071, Nicolae H. Costin Street 63/2, apt. 124, Chisinau municipality, Republic of Moldova, hereinafter referred to as the "shareholder", has decided as follows.

1.3. To establish the Limited Liability Company "PRODEZVOLT" (hereinafter the "Company"). Full name: Societatea cu Raspundere Limitata "PRODEZVOLT". Abbreviated name: "PRODEZVOLT" S.R.L.

1.4. Registered office: MD-2051, Nicolae H. Costin Street 63/2, apt. 124, Chisinau municipality, Republic of Moldova.

1.5. The Company is a private-law legal entity established for profit-making (commercial) purposes. It has separate property and is liable for its obligations with that property; it may acquire and exercise property and personal non-property rights in its own name, assume obligations, and act as claimant or defendant before courts.

1.6. By its legal form, the Company is a limited liability company. It is deemed established and acquires legal personality from the date of state registration in the prescribed manner. The Company has an independent balance sheet and bank accounts, a stamp bearing its name, and an emblem image.

1.7. The Company is established for an unlimited duration.

1.8. The Company may establish branches and representative offices in the Republic of Moldova in accordance with applicable legislation and abroad in accordance with the legislation of the foreign state, unless an international treaty to which the Republic of Moldova is a party provides otherwise.

II. PURPOSE AND TYPES OF ACTIVITY

2.1. The Company is established to carry out any profit-making activity not prohibited by law, including production, works and services, independently and on its own initiative, in its own name, at its own risk and under its own property liability, with the purpose of securing a permanent source of income. To achieve its objectives, the Company will carry out the following activities:

- Advertising agency activities
- Business and management consultancy activities
- Other printing activities n.e.c.
- Other sports activities
- Event catering activities
- Activities of other organisations n.e.c.
- Other education n.e.c.
- Other personal service activities n.e.c.
- Other information service activities n.e.c.

III. SHARE CAPITAL. SHARES

3.1. The share capital of the Company consists of the contributions of the shareholder and represents the minimum value of the Company assets, expressed in Moldovan lei.

3.2. At the date of incorporation, the share capital is 13 lei. SIDORENCO PAVEL - 13 lei, 100%.

3.3. The shareholder contribution in cash shall be paid in full no later than six months from the date of registration of the Company.

3.4. Contributions to share capital may consist of assets, including property rights, and money. Work and services performed upon establishment of the Company and during its existence may not constitute a contribution to the formation or increase of share capital.

3.5. The total amount of contributions may not be less than the amount of the share capital.

3.6. A contribution in kind may consist of any assets in civil circulation. Consumable property may not be contributed as ownership. Claims and non-property rights, as well as consumable property, may not constitute a contribution to the formation or increase of share capital.

3.7. The shareholder contribution in kind shall be made within no more than 30 days from state registration of the Company and shall be independently valued by an appraiser.

3.8. During the Company activity, the shareholder may not demand repayment of the contribution made to share capital.

3.9. The Company issues the shareholder a certificate confirming ownership and the amount of the share. The value of the share certificate corresponds to the shareholder contribution to share capital after the shareholder has been admitted.

3.10. Contributions of persons who become shareholders after establishment of the Company shall be made in the manner prescribed by law.

3.11. Share capital may be increased by: (a) a proportional increase of shares from the Company net profit account or from the reserve capital and/or other sources; or (b) additional contributions by the shareholder and/or third parties who have become shareholders.

3.12. Share capital may be reduced by reducing the nominal value of the share.

3.13. The Company is obliged to reduce its share capital at the end of the second financial year and of each subsequent financial year if the value of its net assets is lower than the share capital and the shareholder does not cover the resulting losses. In such case, the shareholder shall decide to reduce share capital to the net asset value determined in accordance with law.

3.14. The share of a spouse in the Company acquired during marriage is subject to the legal regime of joint property. The shareholder spouse may not demand division of the share or admission to the Company.

IV. RESERVE CAPITAL. ADDITIONAL CONTRIBUTIONS

4.1. The Company shall create reserve capital of at least 10% of the share capital. Reserve capital is formed through annual allocations from net profit of at least 5% of net profit until the prescribed level is reached. If the value of net assets falls below the level of share capital and reserve capital, allocations to reserve capital shall resume.

4.2. Reserve capital may be used only to cover losses or to increase share capital.

4.3. The shareholder may make additional contributions to cover losses incurred by the Company or whenever such contributions are temporarily necessary.

V. COMPANY BODIES

5.1. The internal structure of the Company consists of a supreme deliberative and decision-making body, an executive body, and a control body, as follows:

- General Meeting (Decision of the sole shareholder)
- Administrator (executive body)
- Censor/Auditor (control body)

VI. GENERAL MEETING (DECISION OF THE SOLE SHAREHOLDER)

6.1. The exclusive competence of the shareholder includes:

- amending and supplementing the Statute, including adopting it in a new version;
- changing the amount of share capital;
- approving the results of valuation of contributions in kind to share capital;
- appointing and dismissing the censor before the expiry of the term;
- bringing court actions against the censor for damage caused to the Company;
- approving reports of the censor or opinions of the independent auditor;
- approving the annual balance sheet;
- adopting decisions on distribution of net profit;
- adopting decisions on reorganisation and approving the reorganisation plan;
- adopting decisions on liquidation, appointing the liquidator and approving the liquidation balance sheet;
- approving the size and method of formation of Company funds;
- approving the amount and method of payment of remuneration to the censor;

- prior approval of contracts through which the Company transfers ownership or gratuitously assigns rights to third parties;
- establishing branches and representative offices;
- approving foundations and other legal entities;
- approving participation as co-founder in other legal entities;
- appointing and dismissing the Administrator before expiry of the term;
- approving the annual report and evaluating the Administrator activity;
- bringing court actions against the Administrator for damage caused to the Company;
- approving the amount and method of payment of the Administrator remuneration;
- approving the Company business plan;
- approving internal regulations of the Company.

6.2. Shareholder decisions shall be drawn up in writing, as applicable.

VII. ADMINISTRATOR

7.1. The current activity of the Company is managed by the Administrator.

7.2. The Administrator may only be an adult natural person with full legal capacity. A person deprived by law or court decision of the right to hold the office of administrator or another office involving authority over property, or with unexpunged criminal convictions for offences against property, economic offences, offences committed by persons holding positions of responsibility or by persons managing commercial organisations, may not be appointed Administrator.

7.3. The Administrator has the right to: (a) perform management acts necessary to achieve the purposes stated in this Statute and shareholder decisions; (b) represent the Company without power of attorney in relations with state authorities, third parties and courts; (c) authorise other persons to perform specific legal acts; and (d) exercise other powers delegated by the shareholder.

7.4. The Administrator is obliged to: (a) manage the Company so that its purposes are achieved as efficiently as possible; (b) implement shareholder decisions; (c) ensure maintenance of the Company accounting and registers and inform the shareholder about the state of affairs and management of the Company; (d) demonstrate diligence and loyalty in performing duties; (e) if signs of insolvency arise, file an application to initiate insolvency proceedings immediately, but no later than one month after such signs arise, unless the shareholder covers the losses; and (f) observe the limits of authority established by the shareholder.

7.5. Each year the Administrator shall prepare a report on the Company activity, an inventory statement of Company assets and other documents to be submitted to the shareholder. The Administrator may be required to submit periodic reports.

7.6. The Administrator bears full material liability for damage caused to the Company, including unlawful payments made to the shareholder.

VIII. CENSOR / AUDITOR

8.1. For control over management of the Company and actions of the Administrator, a censor is appointed for a period of three years.

8.2. The following may not act as censor: (a) the Administrator; (b) relatives or in-laws up to the fourth degree inclusive, or the spouse of the Administrator; (c) persons receiving salary or other remuneration from the Company or from the Administrator for another function than censor; and (d) persons specified in paragraph 7.2.

8.3. The censor periodically controls management of the Company on own initiative or at the request of the shareholder. The censor shall examine the economic and financial activity of the Company after the end of the financial year, verify financial reports, inventory Company assets and perform any other actions necessary for an objective evaluation of management.

8.4. The censor prepares a report on each control performed. The report is submitted to the shareholder.

8.5. The censor shall inform the shareholder of facts contrary to law or this Statute that have caused or may cause damage to the Company.

8.6. The Administrator shall make available to the censor all documents necessary for the control.

8.7. The censor is liable for damage caused to the Company or shareholder through non-performance or improper performance of duties. The censor remains liable for three years from the date of the control report that caused damage through the censor fault.

IX. RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE SHAREHOLDER

9.1. The shareholder has the right to:

- participate in management of the Company in accordance with law and this Statute;
- be informed about the Company activity;
- exercise control over the manner in which the Company is managed;
- dispose of and acquire the share in accordance with law;
- request dissolution of the Company;
- participate in distribution of net profit;
- in the event of liquidation, receive part of the Company assets remaining after settlement with creditors and employees;
- receive information on Company activity and inspect accounting registers and other Company documents;
- receive a copy of the annual balance sheet and examine it with access to accounting registers and other Company documents, personally or with the assistance of an expert, and request explanations from Company bodies after presentation of the annual balance sheet.

9.2. The shareholder is obliged to: (a) make the contribution to share capital in the amount, manner and within the terms established by this Statute; (b) not disclose confidential Company information; and (c) immediately inform the Company of any change of domicile or registered office, name or designation, and other information necessary for exercise of rights and fulfilment of obligations by the Company.

X. ACQUISITION AND TRANSFER OF THE SHARE

10.1. The shareholder may not transfer the share until the subscribed contribution has been paid in full, except in case of succession.

10.2. The share is divisible.

10.3. In case of reorganisation of a shareholder that is a legal entity, or death of a shareholder who is a natural person, the rights and obligations within the Company pass to legal successors or heirs. If the successors or heirs renounce participation as shareholders of the Company, the share shall be transferred in the manner prescribed by law.

10.4. In case of liquidation of a shareholder that is a legal entity, the other shareholders have the right to acquire the share of the liquidated shareholder at the price agreed with the liquidation commission.

10.5. Other matters regarding share capital and the manner of transfer of the share are governed by applicable legislation.

XI. DISTRIBUTION AND INVESTMENT OF NET PROFIT

11.1. The Company annually distributes net profit remaining after payment of taxes and other mandatory payments. The decision determining the portion of net profit to be distributed is adopted by the shareholder.

11.2. Net profit shall be paid to the shareholder in cash within 30 days from the date of the distribution decision, unless the shareholder establishes another term.

11.3. The Company may not decide to distribute net profit if, as a result, the value of Company net assets would become lower than the sum of share capital and reserve capital.

11.4. The Company may not pay distributed net profit if, at the time of payment, the Company is insolvent or payment could cause insolvency.

11.5. If the circumstances in paragraphs 11.3 and 11.4 cease, the Company must pay the net profit whose distribution was decided.

11.6. Net profit paid contrary to paragraphs 11.3 and 11.4 shall be returned to the Company.

11.7. The Company may not grant loans to the shareholder or third parties for the acquisition of shares.

XII. REORGANISATION OF THE COMPANY

12.1. The Company may be reorganised by merger (consolidation or absorption), demerger (division or separation), or transformation, under the conditions provided by the Civil Code and the law on limited liability companies. Upon reorganisation, the Company rights and obligations pass to its legal successor.

XIII. SUSPENSION OF COMPANY ACTIVITY

13.1. By decision of the shareholder, the Company may temporarily suspend its activity for a period not exceeding three years, provided that it has no debts to the national public budget or other creditors. During suspension, the Company may not carry out any entrepreneurial activity.

XIV. DISSOLUTION AND LIQUIDATION OF THE COMPANY

14.1. The Company shall be dissolved and liquidated on the grounds established by the law on limited liability companies, the Civil Code and other laws.

Disputes arising in connection with the conclusion, performance, amendment or termination of this Statute, or other claims arising from it, shall first be submitted to an amicable settlement procedure. Unresolved disputes may be referred to competent courts in accordance with applicable law. If the Company was not registered within three months from authentication of the Statute, the founder is released from obligations arising from the share.

This Statute is executed in two counterparts having equal legal force from the date of signature.

Shareholder: SIDORENCO PAVEL - Signature in original.

The Statute was authenticated on 29 June 2016 by Registrar Ala Dragomir of the State Registration Chamber, Chisinau Branch.
